V. COMPANY'S AUTHORITIES

Article 8

The bodies of the Company shall include:

- 1) Management Board;
- 2) Supervisory Board;
- 3) General Meeting.

A. COMPANY'S MANAGEMENT BOARD

Article 9

1. The Company's Management Board shall consist of one to seven members, including the President of the Management Board, appointed and dismissed by the Supervisory Board.
2. The term of office of the Management Board shall be common and shall last four years.
3. The mode of work of the Management Board and distribution of competences among individual members of the Management Board shall be specified by the Regulations of the Management Board passed by the Management Board and approved by the Supervisory Board.

Article 10

1. The Management Board manages Company's affairs and represents it in external relations.
2. All the issues related to managing the Company not attributed by the law or these Articles of Association to the competence of the General Meeting or Supervisory Board shall be within the competence of the Management Board. Before taking any actions which, according to the provisions of the Polish Commercial Companies Code or these Articles of Association, require approval of the Supervisory Board or a resolution of the General Meeting, the Management Board shall apply for relevant approvals to the Supervisory Board or General Meeting of the Company.

3. If the Management Board consists of more than one person, the President of the Management Board alone, two members of the Management Board acting jointly or one member of the Management Board acting jointly with a proxy shall be authorised to submit statements of intent.

1. Article 11

1. Individual or all members of the Company's Management Board may be suspended for serious reasons by way of resolution of the Supervisory Board.
2. In the contract between the Company and member of the Management Board and in disputes between a member of the Management Board and the Company, the Company shall be represented by the Supervisory Board or by an attorney appointed by way of resolution of the General Meeting.

B. THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

Article 12

1. The Supervisory Board shall consist of six members, appointed and dismissed by the General Meeting, subject to point 3 and 4 below. The Supervisory Board is authorised to make any decisions which fall within its competence provided that the Supervisory Board consists of at least three members, and from the moment of obtaining by the Company a status of a public company, of at least five members.
2. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board shall be elected by the Management Board from among its members.
3. If Iwona Przybyło and Andrzej Przybyło jointly hold shares of the Company which allow them to exercise at least 10% of the total number of votes in the general meeting, one member of the Supervisory Board shall be appointed and dismissed by Iwona Przybyło and Andrzej Przybyło. Statement of Iwona Przybyło and Andrzej Przybyło on appointment or dismissal of a member of the Supervisory Board shall be effective provided that it is signed by both the authorised Shareholders.
4. As of the date on which one of the persons indicated in point 3 ceases to be the Shareholder of the Company, the other Shareholder who stays in the Company shall have an independent right, set forth in point 3, to appoint and dismiss members of the Supervisory Board.

5. At least three members of the Supervisory Board shall be Independent Members. Independent Members should meet the following requirements:

- 1) The person who has been a member of the Company's Management Board or Company's proxy in five previous years shall not be an Independent Member,
- 2) An Independent Member shall not be a member of the senior management team of the Company or an entity affiliated with the Company or a person who has been such a member in three previous years. A member of the senior management team shall mean a manager or director of the company's organisational unit who is a direct subordinate of the Company's Management Board or of specific members of the Company's Management Board,
- 3) An Independent Member shall not receive from the Company or from the Company's affiliate any other remuneration than that for his/her function in the Supervisory Board, including, in particular, the remuneration arising from participation in a share option scheme or in any other incentive scheme,
- 4) A shareholder who holds Company's shares which constitute 10% of the Company's share capital or a person related to or representing such a shareholder shall not be an Independent Member,
- 5) A person who is currently maintaining or has been maintaining in the previous year serious business relations with the Company or the Company's affiliate, directly or as partner, shareholder, member of the management board, proxy or member of the senior management team of the entity which maintains such relations with the Company or Company's affiliate, shall not be an Independent Member. Serious business relations shall mean such relations the value of which exceeds 5% of Company's income for the previous financial year,
- 6) A person who is or has been in three previous years a partner or employee of the current or former auditor of the Company shall not be an Independent Member,
- 7) An Independent Member shall not be a member of the management board or proxy of another company in which the member of the Management Board or proxy of the Company is a member of the Supervisory Board,

- 8) An Independent Member may be a member of the Supervisory Board for not more than three terms of office,
- 9) A spouse or member of immediate family of a member of the Management Board, proxy or persons referred to in points 1) 8) above shall not be an Independent Member. A member of immediate family shall mean consanguinity and affinity relatives up to the second degree.

6. Shareholders' right to appoint and dismiss a member of the Supervisory Board, referred to in point 3 and 4 shall be exercised as follows:

- 1) a member of the Supervisory Board shall be appointed by means of a written statement of a shareholder or shareholders submitted to the Company and such an appointment shall be effective as of the date of delivery of such a statement to the Company, unless the statement specifies a later date of appointment of a given member of the Supervisory Board;
- 2) a member of the Supervisory Board appointed by a shareholder or shareholders in the way specified in point 1) above may be dismissed by them at any time. The provisions of point 1) above shall apply to the dismissal of the Supervisory Board's member accordingly. In order for a dismissal of a Supervisory Board's member by shareholders to be effective, a new member of the Supervisory Board must be appointed;
- 3) should the term of office of a member of the Supervisory Board appointed in accordance with point 3 or 4 expire and should the authorised shareholder who has appointed such a member of the Supervisory Board fail to appoint a new member of the Supervisory Board in the place of such a dismissed member of the Supervisory Board within 14 days from the date of expiry of the term of office, then the General Meeting shall have the right to appoint such a new member of the Supervisory Board;"
- 4) the authorised shareholder, referred to in point 3) shall have the right to dismiss a new member of the Supervisory Board appointed by the General Meeting in accordance with point 3). In order for a dismissal of such a member of the Supervisory Board to be effective, a new member of the Supervisory Board must be appointed.

Article 13

1. The term of office of the Supervisory Board shall be common and shall last four years.
2. The Supervisory Board shall act on the basis of the regulations passed by the Supervisory Board and approved by the General Meeting.
3. The meeting of the Supervisory Board shall be convened and chaired by the Chairperson or, should the Chairperson be absent, by the Deputy Chairperson. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board that leaves its office shall convene and open the first meeting of the newly-elected Supervisory Board.
4. The meeting of the Supervisory Board may be ordinary or extraordinary. Ordinary meetings should be held at least four times a year (once a quarter). Extraordinary meetings may be convened at any time.
5. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board or, should the Chairperson be absent, a Deputy of the Chairperson shall convene a meeting of the Supervisory Board on his/her own initiative or on written request of the Management Board of the Company or member of the Supervisory Board. The meeting should be convened within two weeks from the date of submission of the request.
6. Meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be convened with 7 (seven) days' notice by registered letter and simultaneously by facsimile sent to those members of the Supervisory Board who wish to be informed in this way, unless all the members of the Supervisory Board give their consent for convention of the meeting without the said 7 (seven) days' notice.
7. Meetings of the Supervisory Board may be organised by means of a telephone, in a way enabling mutual communication of all the members of the Supervisory Board participating in such a meeting. The resolutions adopted in a meeting held by means of a telephone shall be valid provided that the attendance list and minutes of a given meeting are signed by every member of the Supervisory Board participating therein. In such a case it is assumed that the meeting was held and the minutes were prepared in the place of stay of the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board or, in the case of his/her absence, in the place of stay of the Deputy Chairperson, if the meeting was chaired by him/her.

8. In the scope permitted by law the resolutions of the Supervisory Board may be adopted by way of a voting in writing ordered by the Chairperson or, should the Chairperson be absent, by the Deputy Chairperson, provided that all the members of the Supervisory Board give their consent for the content of the resolutions or for voting in writing. The date of signing by the Chairperson, or Deputy Chairperson (if the voting in writing has been ordered by the Deputy Chairperson) shall be deemed to be the date of the resolution.
9. The members of the Supervisory Board shall have the right to participate in the adoption of the Board's resolutions by casting their votes in writing through the agency of another member of the Supervisory Board. Casting a vote through the agency of another member of the Supervisory Board may not refer to issues introduced to the agenda during the meeting of the Supervisory Board.
10. The resolutions of the Supervisory Board shall be adopted by simple majority of votes. Should the number of opposing votes be equal, the vote of the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board shall be decisive.
11. In order for resolutions to be effective, all the members of the Supervisory Board must be invited to the meeting, in accordance with Article 13.6 above.

Article 14

1. The Supervisory Board shall exercise constant supervision over the Company's operation.
2. Apart from other issues stipulated in the provisions of these Articles of Association or legal regulations, the special rights of the Supervisory Board shall include:
